

Clean parenting

TOOL #3 – LEADERSHIP

- Begin with servant leadership. You do not always know better than your child. Perhaps their Spirit is older than yours even?
- Define family values and lead with these values by consistently revisiting them, bringing them into every day situations, and modeling them. Lead with the why (vision) in everything you do. (See examples on next page)
- Delegation and Development – Meet them where they are. How much direction and support do they need? Too little contributes to frustration and overwhelm. Too much feels condescending.
- Accountability and Discipline – As human beings we perform best when there are carrots and sticks. Decide which ones are appropriate, inspect what you expect, and follow through on enforcing them. This is your job. This can help contribute to a household that runs smoothly and a healthy culture in your family.

Core Value List:

Sustainability	Innovation	Excellence
Reliability	Loyal	Committed
Dependable	Passionate	Courageous
Respectful	Inspiring	Honesty
Integrity	Consistent	Efficient
Humorous	Optimistic	Positive
Nurturing	Open-minded	Adventurous
Resourceful	Customer Service	Fun
Humble	Community	Responsibility
Quality	Satisfaction	Delight
Support	Caring	Partnership
Best	Value	Global
Transformation	Leadership	Teamwork
Diversity	Humility	Transparency
Results	Fanatical	Friends
Family	Listening	Learning
Educating	Remarkable	